LOCKE LIDDELL & SAPP PARTNER ELECTED TO RESPECTED AMERICAN BOARD OF TRIAL ADVOCATES

November 3, – Jerry Clements, a partner in the Dallas and Austin offices of Locke Liddell & Sapp who is head of the Firm’s 200-person Litigation Section, has been elected to the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). As one of the most prestigious trial lawyer groups in America, ABOTA consists equally of members of both the plaintiff and defense bars "whose paramount practice is contested litigation in which the right to jury trial is insured by constitutional provision."

Clements’ trial practice focuses on commercial litigation and defense of class actions. She is a member of Locke Liddell & Sapp’s Management Committee, has been named a “Texas Super Lawyer” by Texas Monthly magazine, was deemed one of the Top 10 Litigators in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex by the Dallas Business Journal, and is a Fellow in the International Society of Barristers.

Clements is a graduate of Texas Christian University and of Baylor University School of Law. Locke Liddell Partners George Bowles, Brian Carmichael, Carlyle Chapman, Graham Hill, Judge John Hill, John McElhaney, and Charlie Parker also are members of ABOTA.

Established in 1891, Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP is recognized as one of the leading law firms in Texas and throughout the nation. A full service law firm with offices in Austin, Dallas, Houston and New Orleans, Locke Liddell & Sapp has about 400 lawyers who represent a broad range of businesses and individual clients having extensive domestic and foreign business interests.
