LOCKE LIDDELL & SAPP PARTNER NAMED FELLOW IN PRESTIGIOUS BARRISTER SOCIETY

August 16, 2002 – Jerry Clements, Chair of the Litigation Section of Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP, has been elected a Fellow in the International Society of Barristers. The ISOB is an organization of trial lawyers with a limited membership who are found to be “outstanding in the field of advocacy.”

Clements is a member of the firm’s Management Committee and of the American Bar Association’s Section of Litigation Task Force on the Judiciary. Her substantial experience includes resolving complex disputes in the areas of commercial litigation, trade secret litigation, covenants not to compete litigation, oil and gas litigation, high technology litigation, environmental insurance coverage disputes, class actions and employment litigation. She is a graduate of Texas Christian University and of Baylor University School of Law.

The ISOB seeks to honor the role of the trial lawyer in the system of justice, without regard to client affiliation. Among the stated goals are the preservation of the adversary system and the retention of the jury system.

Locke Liddell Partner John L. Hill Jr., former Chief Justice of the Texas Supreme Court and former Texas Attorney General, also is a Fellow in ISOB.

Established in 1891, Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP is recognized as one of the leading law firms in Texas and throughout the nation. A full service law firm with offices in Austin, Dallas, Houston and New Orleans, Locke Liddell & Sapp has more than 400 lawyers who represent a broad range of businesses and individual clients having extensive domestic and foreign business interests.
