LOCKE LIDDELL & SAPP'S ELIZABETH MACK NAMED OUTSTANDING PRO BONO COORDINATOR BY DALLAS BAR

October 22, 2002 – Elizabeth Mack, a partner in the Dallas office of Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP, has been named Outstanding Law Firm Pro Bono Coordinator by the Dallas Bar Association.

Mack, who is the firm's Pro Bono Committee Chair and Dallas Pro Bono Coordinator, was chosen because of her ability to take difficult cases and place them quickly. She has been the Pro Bono Committee Chair and Dallas Pro Bono Coordinator for four years. During that time, she has trained firm lawyers to handle pro bono matters, placed more than 150 cases with lawyers in the firm, and led the Dallas office to volunteer over 10,000 hours in pro bono work time.

The Dallas Voluntary Attorney Program has been named the best pro bono program in the country by the American Bar Association.

Mack, who practices in litigation and environmental law, graduated in 1985 from Northwestern University and in 1988 from Harvard Law School.

Established in 1891, Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP is recognized as one of the leading law firms in Texas and throughout the nation. A full service law firm with offices in Austin, Dallas, Houston and New Orleans, Locke Liddell & Sapp has more than 400 lawyers who represent a broad range of businesses and individual clients having extensive domestic and foreign business interests.
