FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Elizabeth Mack Becomes Chair Of State Bar Of Texas Litigation Section

(DALLAS) June 27, 2008 – Elizabeth Mack, a partner based in the Dallas office of Locke Lord Bissell & Liddell LLP, has assumed the chairmanship of the Litigation Section of the State Bar of Texas. The Litigation Section, composed of approximately 7,500 Texas lawyers, is the largest section of the State Bar.

A neutral organization, the Litigation Section is comprised of plaintiff attorneys, defense attorneys, judges, mediators/arbitrators, pro bono attorneys and even law students who are dedicated to improving our justice system and the quality of legal services delivered to Texans.

As the chair of Locke Lord's Environmental Section, Mack is a leader of one of the largest groups of dedicated environmental practitioners in the region. She has substantial experience in environmental compliance, environmental litigation and environmental transactional work, and has been cited for her professional and pro-bono accomplishments.

Locke Lord Bissell & Liddell LLP is a full-service, national law firm of more than 700 attorneys with offices in Atlanta, Austin, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New Orleans, New York, Sacramento and Washington, D.C. With a vast geographic scope, and a national reputation in complex litigation, regulatory and transactional work, Locke Lord is focused on achieving client success as a team. Among Locke Lord's many strong practice areas are appellate, capital markets, corporate, class action litigation, employee benefits, energy, environmental, financial services, health care, insurance and reinsurance, intellectual property, labor and employment, public law, real estate, regulatory, REIT, tax and technology.
