Locke Lord Partner Arthur Anthony Elected Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation

(DALLAS) March 12, 2014 – Locke Lord Dallas Partner Arthur “Art” Anthony has been elected to the Fellows of the Texas Bar Foundation.

He joins an elite group – each year, just one-third of 1 percent of State Bar members are invited to become Fellows. Anthony shares the honor with his Locke Lord colleagues Brad B. Hawley, John R. Nelson and David Patton, who were named Fellows earlier this year.

Fellows of the Foundation are selected for their outstanding professional achievements and their demonstrated commitment to the improvement of the justice system throughout Texas. Once nominees are chosen, they must be elected by the Texas Bar Foundation Board of Trustees. The election is a mark of distinction and a recognition of their contributions to the legal profession.

Anthony is a litigator who focuses his practice on consumer finance, banking and financial services matters, as well as construction litigation. Anthony also has substantive experience representing clients involved in insurance disputes and government investigations. He is heavily involved in the Firm’s pro bono efforts, serving as Co-Chair of the Pro Bono Services Committee and working with the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program. He has been a member of the Firm’s Board of Directors since 2011.

Anthony has previously been named as a Fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation and has had his work recognized by the J.L. Turner Legal Association, the African-American bar association in Dallas.

Locke Lord consistently ranks among American Lawyer’s top 100 U.S. law firms. The Firm’s full range of practice and industry areas serve national and international clients from offices in Atlanta, Austin, Chicago, Dallas, Hong Kong, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New Orleans, New York, Sacramento, San Francisco and Washington, D.C. It has an excellent reputation in complex litigation, regulatory and transactional work, with its 650-plus attorneys building collaborative relationships and crafting creative solutions – all designed and executed to meet clients’ long-term strategic goals.
