Locke Lord Ranked Among Top 30 Largest Health Care Law Firms by Modern Healthcare Magazine

July 5, 2016 – Locke Lord announced today that its Health Care Practice Group ranked prominently in Modern Healthcare's 2016 list of the "Largest Health Care Law Firms." Locke Lord was ranked the 29th-largest health care law firm in the country, up nine spots from the previous year. This ranking reflects the growth and increasing stature of the Firm's Health Care practice.

Modern Healthcare ranks law firms on the basis of a blended score of health care lawyers employed in 2015 and membership in the American Health Lawyers Association.

Locke Lord's Health Care Practice Group assists clients in achieving their business objectives and enabling them to navigate the legal and regulatory complexities unique to the health care industry. Lawyers in the Firm's Health Care Practice Group possess extensive experience in health care law and a significant record of success in representing health industry clients on transactional, regulatory, compliance, enforcement, managed care and health insurance, privacy and litigation matters. Locke Lord works closely with a variety of health industry clients on new and emerging transactions, relationships and joint ventures spurred by government and private sector health reform initiatives.

In 2016, Locke Lord's Health Care Practice Group was recognized in Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers for Texas; and listed as a "Recognized Practitioner" for Massachusetts. The practice group was also recognized in the U.S. News – Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms" report in 2015.
