(LONDON) October 10, 2016 – Locke Lord is pleased to announce the launch of its iPhone Brexit App, providing the latest updates, commentary and analysis from the Firm’s lawyers on progress made since the recent referendum in the UK and the potential legal implications that may affect businesses, whether in the UK or abroad. Locke Lord is a leader of law firms in establishing its own iPhone App solely designed to deliver Brexit news instantly. In 2010, Locke Lord was one of the first law firms to introduce its own iPhone App for users to contact lawyers, read lawyer biographies, register for Firm events and find their way around cities where our offices are located with built-in GPS.

The Locke Lord Brexit App, available via free download by searching “Locke Lord Brexit” within the App Store, was developed to provide rapid analysis and insight into Brexit with up-to-date legal commentary from Locke Lord lawyers in its offices around the globe.
