Locke Lord Strengthens Firm's Regulatory and Transactional Insurance Practice With Addition of Attorney David Green in Atlanta

(ATLANTA) June 14, 2017 – David Green has joined Locke Lord's Atlanta office as Senior Counsel in the Firm's Regulatory and Transactional Insurance Practice Group. As former Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer for a national commercial property and casualty insurance company based in Atlanta, Green brings extensive, practical experience in all aspects of corporate, transactional and insurance law, ethics and compliance and risk management.

"We are pleased to have someone with David's extensive insurance background join our team in Atlanta," said Brian Casey, Co-Chair of the Firm's Regulatory and Transactional Insurance Practice Group who also is based in Atlanta. "The capabilities of Locke Lord's national Regulatory and Transactional Insurance Practice Group are unparalleled in the Atlanta market, and I know the addition of David will only enhance our existing strong team."

Green has been a strategic-minded legal advisor to boards of directors and senior management who assists clients in maximizing business opportunities while mitigating risk. He advises clients on legal implications of major decisions, strategies and transactions, particularly commercial transactions, regulatory affairs, corporate governance, product development and litigation management. He has additional experience in reinsurance and employee benefits and significant experience with mergers and acquisitions.

"I am thrilled to join Locke Lord's Atlanta office. While working in-house for many years, I have always been very impressed with the scope of the Firm's insurance team and variety of insurance industry clients," Green said. "Locke Lord's robust international platform provides me an exciting opportunity to grow my practice and tap into the vast wealth of knowledge at the Firm."
