Locke Lord Named to Modern Healthcare’s 2017 Largest Health Care Law Firms List

July 17, 2017 – Locke Lord’s Health Care Practice Group was ranked prominently in Modern Healthcare’s 2017 list of Largest Health Care Law Firms. The Firm ranked 28, up one spot from 29 the previous year.

Firms are ranked annually on the basis of a blended score of health care lawyers employed in the previous year and membership in the American Health Lawyers Association.

“We’re delighted to be recognized again this year by Modern Healthcare and the American Health Lawyers Association,” said Denise Hanna and David Szabo, Co-Chairs of the Firm’s Health Care Practice Group. “This ranking showcases the continued growth and momentum of our practice as well as our extraordinary team of lawyers who provide the highest level of service to our health industry clients across the country.”

Locke Lord’s Health Care Practice Group is made up of lawyers with deep experience in both managed care and health insurance matters and representation of health care providers. Lawyers in the Firm’s Health Care Practice Group have a significant record of success working closely with a variety of health care industry clients on new and emerging transactions, relationships and joint ventures spurred by government and private sector health care reform initiatives. Locke Lord represents a diverse array of national and regional clients, including health care providers, health insurers and health care intermediaries as well as investors and health information technology companies in M&A and other transactions, regulatory (multi-state and federal) compliance, government relations, enforcement matters and litigation.

In 2017, Locke Lord’s Health Care Practice Group was recognized in Chambers USA for Massachusetts, and Chambers USA further recognized or ranked three of the Firm’s health care lawyers individually. The practice group was also recognized in the U.S. News – Best Lawyers® Best Law Firms report in 2017.
