With insurance attorneys located in our Austin, Dallas and Houston offices, Locke Lord's longstanding and diverse insurance practice has strong roots throughout Texas as well as in the state capital where the Texas Department of Insurance is based.

Locke Lord's Texas Insurance Team practices in a broad range of insurance fields, including general corporate and corporate governance, investments, mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance, licensing, regulatory disputes, investigations and enforcement, commercial litigation matters, unclaimed property regulatory audits, rulemaking, open records and confidentiality issues, holding company issues, county mutual regulatory issues, negotiations on revolving credit facilities, formations of insurance holding companies, conservatorship matters, license applications, class actions and insurance coverage disputes. Our Firm provides these services to a broad range of life and health and property and casualty insurance companies, agencies, brokers, life settlement companies, HMOs and PPOs, holding companies and related financial services companies.

Although not typically regulated as insurance in Texas, Locke Lord also has considerable experience representing companies involved in the service contract industry before the Texas Real Estate Commission and the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation.
