Locke Lord Strengthens West Coast Public Finance Capabilities With Addition of Attorney Juan Redín in Los Angeles

(LOS ANGELES) January 8, 2019 – Juan Redín has joined Locke Lord's Los Angeles office as Senior Counsel in the Firm's premier, nationally recognized Public Finance Practice Group. Redín, who joins the Firm from Norton Rose Fulbright, has extensive experience advising clients as bond, issuer's, bank and disclosure counsel in various public finance transactions.

Redín has handled numerous tax-exempt bond transactions, including traditional general obligation bonds, conduit 501(c)(3) financings, revenue bonds, tax and revenue anticipation notes and certificates of participation. He has served as special counsel to domestic and foreign banks providing liquidity and credit support for municipal and nonprofit financings. He also has substantial experience with 501(c)(3) organizations, including their formation and the exempt application process with the Internal Revenue Service.

"Juan is a dynamic and versatile lawyer whose vast knowledge of public finance law and background serving a wide range of public sector clients make him a fantastic addition to Locke Lord," said Stephanie Massey, Co-Chair of Locke Lord's Public Finance Practice Group. "His arrival will strengthen our public finance capabilities on the West Coast and highlights the Firm's continued commitment to strategically growing our already very strong Public Finance Practice Group."

Locke Lord has more than 125 years of involvement in the law of public borrowing and the federal tax and securities aspects of public debt obligations. The Firm's public finance clients include virtually every type of issuer in the municipal bond market, ranging from states, cities and towns, and numerous other governmental entities and conduit issuers and borrowers, including educational and health care institutions.

"Locke Lord has built a robust presence in the public finance sector, and I am pleased to be able to bring my skill set to this stellar team. I am looking forward to closely collaborating with my colleagues to expand the Firm's resources and reach throughout California and across the country," said Redín.

A frequent author on the topic of municipal borrowing in California, Redín is also a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers. He serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law, Alumni Association and as Treasurer of the Mexican American Bar Association.
